article 1 - definition and purpose

The “Festival International des Très Courts” is organized by the association Très d’Esprit and Nanosphère Productions.

It purports to promote actively the Très Court (Very Short Film, ie: of less than three minutes).

article 2 - date and place

The Twelfth Edition of the “Festival International des Très Courts” takes place from May 7 to May 16, 2010 in Paris, as well as in all projection places associated to the event. Should any unforeseen problem occur, the Festival retains the right to cancel the event or to modify the dates and places of the event.

article 3 - conditions for registration

The films registered to enter the short listing must not exceed three minutes. They must have a title and credits (not included in the 3 minutes of the film).

Directors need to send in a registration form and a copy of their film on DVD or MiniDV before February 10th, 2010 to: Festival International des Très Courts - Association Très d’Esprit - 34 rue Piat - 75020 Paris - France.

A director can enter several films grouped on the same support, but will file in one separate form per entry.

The received DVD or MiniDV will not be returned.

article 4 - selection

The Festival Selection Committee will view the films sent in by the candidates and will short list the “Très Courts” which will participate to the International Competition or the Women’s Words selection. The short list will be on line on www.trescourt.com March 18th, 2010. The films registered but not selected for those competitions may however be screened off-competition under the “Around the Très Courts” label.

The directors of short listed films will be advised and will have to send in a copy of their production in a Beta SP, Digital Beta or MiniDV format within ten days. In case of a copy of very poor quality, a previously short listed film may need to be disqualified. Only Beta or DV copies of short listed films will be returned to the directors after the Festival.

article 5 - rights

Participants give to the “Festival International des Très Courts” the full and unconditional right to broadcast selected films in all the places where the Festival takes place as well as at the jury and press screenings. They also give the full and unconditional right to reproduce images or excerpts of less than one minute for broadcasting purposes in the press, on TV and on the Internet.

article 6 - Très Court films market

The registered films may appear in a Très Courts catalog aimed at professionals and may be requested for screening by accredited persons. Directors’ and producers’ contact information will be made available to any professional interested.

article 7 - jury & prizes

A jury invited by the “Festival International des Très Courts” will award the following prizes: “Grand Prix”, Animation Award, and Originality Award. The Public Award will be announced May 15th, 2010 on the Festival’s website after public ballots count in every cities.

The Women’s Word jury will award in Montpellier, France, the following prizes: Best Movie, Director Award and Originality Award.
